C., 1909-1910, Vol. 1: Containing a General and a Classified Business Directory of the Above Places, a Street Guide of Burlington and Graham an Much Useful Miscellaneous Information Burlington is the chief town of Alamance county. It is situated in the center of the county. It is 21 miles east of Greensboro and 50 miles from Raleigh, the State capital; and on the main line of the Southern Railroad from Greensboro to Goldsboro. We have a population of 6,000, with an immediate population of 5, 000 more. It is surrounded by small towns and mill villages as follows: Hopedale, Carolina, Glencoe, Alamance, and Osceola, thriving little towns in which are located large cotton mills employing hundreds of hands, Burlington being the trading center and post office for same. We have an active little city with every part of it throbbing and vibrating with industrial and commercial development. Graded Schools, churches, private schools, newspapers, telegraph and telephone lines, electric lights, railroads, and within a few months, street car lines (the survey has been completed and construction begun), and these keep us in line of modern progress. Ours is mainly an industrial city. We have five large cotton mills with 50,000 spindles and 2,000 looms, employing 2,500 people; we have three knitting mills which employ over 300 people; we have one of the largest overall and shirt factories in the South employing hundreds of skilled workmen; we have a steel bridge plant covering an area of thousands of feet and working hundreds of skilled men; several enormous wood working plants which consume millions of feet of lumber per week;...
