Excerpt: . . . for producing the more difficult forms of dictionaries, text-books, grammars, and similar works. We have exceptional equipment for doing technical, scientific, and complicated English composition, our type-faces, electrotyping facilities and careful proofreading being important features. This department is in charge of Mr. Adolph Linsenbarth, who has had many years experience in this special line, both here and abroad, and who needs no introduction to authors and publishers. Specimen pages, examples of different type faces, and quotations will be promptly forwarded on receipt of inquiries, or Mr. Linsenbarth will call personally and give his expert suggestion and advice for undertakings of this character. Attention is also directed to our special facilities for doing printing for those engaged in Export Trade. Advertising literature intended for distribution in foreign countries should be printed in the native language of such countries. It is also necessary to have correct and accurate translation of the matter you wish to present to those located in countries where business is being solicited. We have expert translators for electric, automobile and other technical work. Manuscripts may be furnished in English or in any foreign language. We have every facility for translating, compiling, and printing large or small illustrated catalogues, booklets, price-lists, etc. , and other commercial literature. We will gladly make estimates, submit samples and cooperate in every way possible in the production of such work. Wf) t printer aitb jtg ffireobuct Continued from page 249 Have Done. Thomas E.
