Excerpt: . of the nations, the upholder of justice for the weak, hast thou, even thou also stooped low, hast thou, even thou also, like the barbaric kinds, who in days gone by adored thee for thy divinity, stooped to the use of the infernal principle of rule by brute force? Hast not thou too, also bowed the knee to the god of the lower world, even the power of iniquity? Yea verily, thou hast given thy love unto the power of destruction, and thine adoration unto the dominion of death; and woe, woe is me that I must bear the burden of thy shame. Crushed am I with thy heavy dishonour. Woe, woe is me that I must declare thy sorrowful judgment. Thy prestige among men is gone. Thy fair renown is no more; thy goodly name is in the history of the past;...
