Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Game Bulletin No; 1: 1913 The large game animals of California constitute one of the most important groups of game in this State. That some of these animals are rapidly approaching extinction is a fact which needs no proof. The older sportsmen, and hunters in general, testify to the great decrease in the number of deer, elk, mountain sheep, and antelope that has taken place in California during the past three or four decades. In consequence of the importance of this game, and in view of the fact of the materially lessened numbers, the Fish and Game Commission has undertaken a special study of the subject, with the hope of establishing a more efficient system of conservation, one that not only will prevent the extermination of these animals, but will result in an increase of the present numbers, so that the large game animals may become a permanent source of wealth for the people of the State. Until recent years, the work of conserving the large game supply of the State was a matter regulated...
