Tompot Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Benny the Blenny's Shallow Sea Adventure: I'm a Real Fish That Lives in the Sea Around Britain: Come and See How I'm Adapted to My Habitat and Meet My Neighbours: Crabs, Cuttlefish, Sea Anemones, Starfish, Seals and Fish: Do I Eat Them or Do They Try to Eat Me?, Teresa Naylor, Paul Naylor, This unique book introduces children to the beautiful and often unexpected undersea world around British coasts. Far too many people regard our seas as "grey and uninteresting" but, using a wonderful blend of entertainment and education, Benny the tompot blenny puts them right. If you thought a fish couldn't be charismatic, think again! Along with stunning photography by Paul Naylor (author of 'Great British Marine Animals'), Benny tells you all about his life in the sea just beyond our beaches. He introduces you to his neighbours: crabs, starfish, sea snails, barnacles, sea anemones, squat lobsters, seals, cuttlefish, gobies and many other fish. Fact boxes reveal how Benny and his neighbours are adapted to their habitat, how they find food and avoid being food for someone else. Biodiversity, adaptation, variation, reproduction, food chains and food webs are included to support...
