Tis Baal s worshippers who first draw near, And call upon their god. It answers not. How can it? Eyes it has, but cannot see; Ears, but it cannot hear. Elijah waits Till noon, and then begins to mock them. Cry, Said he, cry aloud: for, as he is a god, Perchance he slumbers, or is gone a journey! 40 But still no answer came; and in the madness Of their fury, they leap d upon the altar, And cut themselves with knives. Twas all in vain Calmly Elijah now steps forth, and rears The altar of his God. It was in ruins. He mentions not the rupture of the kingdom, But took twelve stones...
