Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Out of Doors for Women, Vol. 1 Campanula, or Canterbury bells, makes a remarkably showy plant in this climate and deserve more attention. The cup and saucer varieties are peculiarly interesting, though not more lovely than the older varieties. It is often difficult in selecting plants for exposed situations, such as hanging baskets or rookeries, to find those that can bear drouth, even for a few hours. The well known sedums with their succulent foliage make an excellent stand by. Their blossoms are of every shade of color and look well against a solid back ground. Until one sees in bloom the white poppy, Romneja Coulteri, he can have no real conception of its exquisite beauty. A native of Southern California it is yet so rare that but few people ever see it except in the garden of some florist or flower enthusiast. Trees are now felled to a considerable extent by electricity. A platinum wire, heated white-hot by the current, is used, stretched between two poles as a saw. There is less work than...

Reviews

Extensive guide! Its such a excellent read. This can be for anyone who statte that there was not a worth looking at. I am just effortlessly will get a satisfaction of looking at a written publication.
